

CHILDREN'S BILL OF RIGHTS

By the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers

I have the right to love both parents.

I do not have to choose one parent over the other.

I am entitled to all the feelings I am having.

I have the right to be in a safe environment.

I don't belong in the middle of my parent's breakup.

My grandparents, aunts and uncles are still a part of my life.

I have the right to be a child.
