I. SCOPE OF CHAMBER RULES

The following Chamber Rules apply to processes and procedures in the Circuit Court, Division IV, of the 20th Judicial District of Tennessee (more commonly known as the “Fourth Circuit Court”). The Tennessee Rules of Civil, Criminal, and Appellate Procedure, Rules of Evidence, Rules of Professional Responsibility, and the Code of Judicial Conduct will take precedence over these Chamber Rules for any conflicting provisions.

Unless a particular rule indicates to the contrary, the word “complaint” may also mean “petition,” the word “plaintiff” may also mean “petitioner,” and the word “defendant” may also mean “respondent.”

These chamber rules or any part thereof are subject to suspension by the Court when, in the Court’s discretion, it is required for justice.

All previous chamber rules of the Fourth Circuit Court are hereby set aside and are of no force or effect.

These rules will be effective on January 15, 2025.

II. ABOUT THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT

The Fourth Circuit Court was established in 1957 by an Act from the Tennessee General Assembly and is the only court in Davidson County specifically designated to hear matters involving divorces, annulments, separate support and maintenance, custody, support and care of minor children, adoptions, appeals from the juvenile court, and all other proceedings involving domestic matters.

Currently, the Fourth Circuit Court is under the leadership of Judge Stephanie J. Williams, who began her service as Judge in the Fourth Circuit Court on September 1, 2024.

It is the mission of Judge Williams and the Fourth Circuit Court Team to serve families with compassion, competence, and respect. We are further dedicated to providing transparent, professional, and accessible court services; investing in the growth and development of our families; and being a model for the advancement and improvement of the legal system.

— IV. CORRESPONDENCE WITH THE COURT —

- A. It is the preference of the Court that all matters be communicated to the Court in pleadings, notices, and memoranda, with the adverse party copied accordingly, or in open court.
- B. When timing does not allow for communication with the Court in a formal pleading, notice memoranda, or in open court, communication with the Court regarding a substantive or fact specific matter of a case, including a matter to be considered by the Judge outside of a formal hearing, may take place via email to the appropriate staff person with opposing counsel copied (or opposing party if a self-represented litigant).
- C. Matters that are not substantive and request general direction, scheduling, administration, procedure, or general assistance from court staff may be communicated via written email correspondence to a staff member of the Court or a telephone call to the Court's chambers.
- D. Unless otherwise allowed in these Chamber Rules, discussing the merits of a pending case with a staff member is strictly prohibited.

— V. COURTROOM DECORUM —

The purpose of this section is to set forth basic principles concerning appropriate behavior and decorum when appearing before the Court. These requirements are intended to emphasize and enhance the ethical obligations of attorneys under the Rules of Professional Conduct and the time-honored customs of experienced trial attorneys. They are further intended to inform litigants, witnesses, and spectators of proper etiquette when appearing in court.

It is imperative to remember that a courtroom is a forum for adjudicating the rights and duties of litigants and that discussions that occur in court are highly regulated by the rules of evidence and procedure.

A. THE FOLLOWING ARE REQUIREMENTS WHEN APPEARING BEFORE THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT:

- 1. Always be prompt and in the courtroom ready to proceed at the appointed time. If possible, the Court should be notified in advance if attorney for a party or a party will be late.
- 2. Attire for attorneys, parties, witnesses, and spectators should be restrained and appropriate to the dignity of a courtroom. Attorneys and court reporters shall be professionally dressed, whether appearing in person or by visually remote means.

Litigants, witnesses, and spectators should avoid wearing shorts, tank tops, mini-skirts and dresses, low cut apparel, sleeveless apparel, flip flops, shirts that depict pictures or words (unless the words are the brand of the apparel), clothes that reveal midriff areas, denim pants, and any other attire that is inappropriate for a formal business setting. Further, unless worn for religious custom and practice, hats and sunglasses shall not be worn in the courtroom. This is applicable to litigants and witnesses whether appearing in person or by visually virtual means.

The Court recognizes that people come to court from all walks of life and may come directly from work or may face challenges that cause them to appear in clothing other than that described above. No one will be prohibited from entering the courtroom or removed from the courtroom based on such attire unless such attire is blatantly offensive.

- 3. All individuals in the courtroom shall stand when court is opened, recessed, and adjourned, unless limited by a physical disability.
- 4. All attorneys, parties, and witnesses shall stand when addressing, or being addressed by the Court, with the exception of witnesses testifying on the witness stand and those limited by physical disability.
- 5. When speaking at the lectern, from counsel table, or on the witness stand, remain at the lectern, counsel table, or witness stand and speak clearly, loudly, and at a consistent pace into the microphone. Exceptions may be when utilizing charts or devices to present evidence. The microphone amplifies sound and is used to capture audio in the recording of the proceeding. The microphone is recording at all times and may capture private conversations.
- 6. When first addressing the Court, attorneys and self-represented litigants shall state their name, spelling names as needed. Attorneys shall also state the party they represent.
- 7. Do not approach the witness or the bench without the Court's permission.
- 8. Refer to all persons, including witnesses, other attorneys, and the parties by their surnames and not by their first or given names. Exceptions may be made in the case of children.
- 9. Address all remarks to the Court, not to opposing counsel, litigants, or witnesses. Arguments between litigants, their attorneys, and/or witnesses are strictly prohibited. Further, disparaging personal remarks and acrimony toward opposing counsel, a party, or witness are strictly prohibited.

10. Unless making an objection, attorneys, parties, or witnesses are not to interrupt a witness or attorney who is speaking and under no circumstance should the Judge be interrupted when speaking.
11. When making an objection, the objecting party shall stand if physically able to do so, state there is an objection and state VERY briefly the legal grounds for the objection, withholding further comment or argument unless requested by the Court. The proponent of the question shall not make ANY argument to the objection unless the Court requests a response and the witness shall withhold response until such time the Court rules.
12. Gestures, facial expressions, audible comments, or the like as manifestations of approval or disapproval during the testimony of witnesses or at any other time is strictly prohibited.
13. No tobacco use in any form is permitted in the courthouse. No bottles, beverage containers, paper cups, chewing gum, or food are allowed in the courtroom except for the water provided at the counsel table.
14. Cell phones and other electronic devices must be turned off, on vibrate mode, or silenced.
15. It is strongly discouraged and inadvisable for children to be in the courtroom during proceedings, except when testifying during the proceeding or when appearing for a final uncontested adoption hearing.
16. Limit the oral communication of social security numbers and financial account numbers during a hearing to the last 4 digits.
17. Be courteous to everyone in the courtroom, including Court staff.
18. Unless approved in advance by the Court, photographing, recording, or broadcasting court proceedings is strictly prohibited.
19. Repeated entrances and departures in and out of the courtroom are to be avoided.
20. Doorways and passageways in the courtroom should be kept clear at all times.

All attorneys shall provide a copy of this policy on Courtroom Decorum to clients, witnesses, and court reporters prior to coming to court. A copy of just these rules can be found by clicking here: Court Decorum or scanning the QR code:

- 1. Please be sure to call chambers at: 615-862-5910 or email: ronnellgriffin@jnsnashville.gov to provide information on docket announcements (e.g., continuance, agreed order, strike, etc.). This should be done even if a notice or Agreed Order has been filed, as the Court does not receive these notices.

- 2. Please be sure to notify the Court of these announcements no later than 8:45 a.m. the Friday of the Motion hearing; otherwise, you may announce in open court the day of the hearing.

- 3. When calling regarding a case on the motion docket, please be prepared with the number that your motion is on the docket.

- 4. Continuances of motions should be to a date certain versus indefinitely.

- 5. First time continuance requests on motion hearings are liberally granted.

VIII. DISCOVERY

- A. All discovery (written or otherwise) in civil matters shall be conducted in accordance with the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of Practice for Davidson County, Tennessee. However, Local Rule 22.04(a) shall not apply in initial divorce actions if a party chooses to use the Third Circuit Court approved set of written discovery, including approved Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents, a copy of which is appended to the Chamber Rules of the Third Circuit Court.
- B. Absent relief from the Court, Rule 22 of the Local Rules of Practice for Davidson County, Tennessee, shall be strictly adhered to by all parties.
- C. The Court considers a discovery request for financial information going back more than 24 months prior to the filing of a complaint for divorce to be excessive for wage earners, including, but not limited to, W-2 employees. For parties who are not wage earners, the Court will liberally grant an extension of the 24 months for a period up to 48 months based upon the facts of the particular case. If a limitation on the discovery period for financial information in a divorce case is filed, the party requesting a longer period will have the burden of persuading the Court that the longer period is not excessive. The Court will balance all competing interests of the parties, including the relevant cost and financial means of each party in rendering its decision.
- D. The Court encourages parties to conduct necessary discovery by informal and less costly means such as jointly sworn asset and liability statements and jointly sworn income statements. Informal discovery may render a more timely settlement. However, if informal discovery results in unnecessary delays or insufficient or unreliable information, formal discovery shall be served as soon as practicable.
- E. All motions to compel discovery responses shall describe in detail the good-faith, written efforts made to resolve the matters alleged prior to filing the motion and must state with specificity the discovery responses that are alleged to be deficient.

IX. EX PARTE RELIEF: REQUESTS FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDERS

- A. The power to issue injunctive relief under Tennessee law is regulated by Tennessee Civil Procedure Rule 65. Rule 65.03 must be consulted and followed when making application to the Court for a temporary restraining order.
- B. All requests for Temporary Restraining Orders must be accompanied by an underlying petition or complaint (if one is not already pending). The Court does not adjudicate temporary restraining orders as a stand-alone action.
- C. A Temporary Restraining Order shall be effective and binding on the party to be restrained at the time of service or when the party is informed of the order, whichever is earlier.
- D. The Court, in reliance on Rule 65.07 of the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure, may leave the temporary restraining order in effect indefinitely or until final hearing.
- E. The Court, in its discretion, may set a Temporary Restraining Order for hearing sua sponte.
- F. No Temporary Restraining Order resulting in a change in the residential schedule or custody of minor children contained in a permanent parenting plan will be granted unless the requirements of Tenn. Code Ann. § 36-6-405(b) are met.
- G. All proposed Temporary Restraining Orders shall include a line for the date and time of entry and a signature line for the Judge.
- H. The Court does not get immediate notice from the Circuit Court Clerk's Office that requests for ex parte Temporary Restraining Orders have been filed. Upon filing the same, please call chambers at: 615-862-5910 AND email a courtesy copy to: ronnellgriffin@jjsnashville.gov to ensure timely and prompt attention to the request. Requests for Temporary Restraining Orders filed by 2:00 p.m. on a day the Court is open, will be addressed before the close of business on the day of filing.
- I. All matters requesting a Temporary Restraining Order shall include a proposed Order to Appear and Show Cause. Show Cause Orders shall be drafted to require the opposing party to appear on a date certain as set by the Circuit Court Clerk to show cause why the relief requested should not immediately be granted or why a temporary restraining order previously granted should not remain in effect.

J. The following is a checklist for a Temporary Restraining Order application pursuant to Rule 65.03:

- ✓ Facts Needed—Present or imminent circumstances that will result in immediate and irreparable harm before notice can be served and a hearing held under certain conditions as specified above—TRCP 65.03(1)
- ✓ Facts Must Be Sworn To—The filing of a verified complaint or application supported by affidavits—TRCP 65.03(1)
- ✓ Must State It Is The First Application for Such Relief—T.C.A. § 29-1-107
- ✓ Notice Affidavit—Include Verification in Complaint and Separate Certification on Notice—“[S]pecific facts in an affidavit or verified complaint clearly show that immediate and irreparable injury . . . will result to applicant before the adverse party can be heard in opposition” AND certification in writing “that efforts were made to give notice and the reasons why it should not be required. T.R.C.P. 65.03(1).

A. SCHEDULING

1. Excluding petitions for termination of parental rights and adoption, all matters pending in the Fourth Circuit Court which are not set for trial or closed within six (6) months of filing shall be set for a status conference by Domestic Status Conference Order. The Circuit Court Clerk's Office shall electronically file the Domestic Status Conference Order and serve a copy of the order by mail to all self-represented litigants and counsel of record. The order shall be entered approximately two months in advance of the status conference and shall be set on a Domestic Status Conference Docket with the Special Master presiding. The status conference shall take place via videoconference or via teleconference at the discretion of the Special Master.
2. All attorneys of record and all self-represented litigants must participate in the status conference. Participation is mandatory unless waived by express permission of the Special Master or the Court. Litigants represented by attorneys may appear for the conference, but appearance is not required. Attorneys attending the status conference must know the current status of the case and must have authority to enter a scheduling order at the time of the status conference. An agreed scheduling order does not preclude attendance at the status conference.
3. Beginning April 1, 2025, a Fourth Circuit Court Status Conference Docket will be posted each month on the Davidson County Circuit Court Clerk's website: <https://circuitclerk.nashville.gov/>. If a case is closed by final order or set for trial prior to a scheduled status conference, the case will be removed from the Domestic Status Conference Docket, and no attendance at the conference is required.
4. A video link to access the Status Conference Docket will be posted each month on the Circuit Court Clerk's website. If you are unable to attend the Status Conference Docket by video, you must contact the Special Master no later than five (5) business days in advance of your scheduled conference to make alternative arrangements, this includes any request to appear by phone rather than video.
5. For any approved teleconference, all parties must be on the line and initiate the call together to the Special Master. Approved teleconferences may also be conducted by conference line. If a conference line is used, the number must be provided to the Special Master 48 hours prior to the status conference, and the Special Master will call into the line at the scheduled conference time.

6. The final Domestic Status Conference Docket will be posted on the Davidson County Circuit Court Clerk's website by 12:00 p.m. two (2) Thursdays preceding the scheduled conference docket. If participants are unable to attend the status conference on the scheduled date or at the specified time, the Special Master must be notified five (5) days before the scheduled status conference, and the conference will be rescheduled. Failure to notify the Special Master of your unavailability and/or failure to participate in the status conference may subject you to sanctions pursuant to Rule 16.06 of the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure.

B. STATUS CONFERENCE ORDERS

All status conference orders should be e-filed with the Davidson County Circuit Court Clerk's Office and served according to the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure. The Special Master will direct attorneys and parties to draft the Status Conference Order at her discretion. Proposed orders may be emailed to the Special Master for review prior to e-filing or as directed by the Special Master. DO NOT send proposed orders to the Special Master for filing. Orders should be filed within five (5) business days of the status conference unless otherwise directed by the Special Master. Follow-up conferences may be scheduled as needed after the initial status conference. Follow-up conference dates must be included in the status conference order. Attorneys and litigants who disagree with the recommendations of the Special Master should file a motion with the Court to amend the status conference order within five (5) business days of the status conference. Any such motion filed more than five (5) business days after the status conference shall be denied without a hearing.

B. PRETRIAL CONFERENCES

If a case is not fully resolved in the Judicial Settlement Conference, the case then proceeds to a Pretrial Conference with Judge Williams. This conference is conducted remotely using Microsoft Teams and is utilized to discuss procedure, order of proof, time constraints, deadlines for required filings, and other preliminary matters prior to the commencement of trial. Only attorneys for the parties and self-represented litigants are required to participate in the Pretrial Conference.

C. PRETRIAL BRIEFS

- 1. Pretrial briefs are to be filed in all contested cases (unless otherwise excused by the Court). XIV. JUDICIAL SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES

A. SCHEDULING

1. Judicial Settlement Conferences are conducted by the Special Master and are mandatory in all contested cases. Judicial Settlement Conferences are scheduled after a Motion to Set is granted, and the date of the settlement conference must be included in the Order to Set the matter for final hearing. Attorneys and self-represented litigants must contact Ms. Ronnell Griffin by telephone: 615-862-5910 or e-mail: ronnellgriffin@jjsnashville.gov to obtain Judicial Settlement Conference dates.
2. The Court requires Judicial Settlement Conferences in the following contested matters:
 - Divorce
 - Modification of a Permanent Parenting Plan
 - Modification of Alimony
 - Any other matter designated by the Court
3. Judicial Settlement Conferences are set by order of the Court. The Special Master does not have authority to reschedule, delay, reset, cancel, or otherwise modify the Judicial Settlement Conference date without Court approval. NO EXCEPTIONS. If you cannot attend the Judicial Settlement Conference as ordered, you should immediately notify the Special Master and file the appropriate pleading requesting relief from the Court. Please note there is no guarantee relief will be granted just because a request is made.

B. WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- 1. All parties and attorneys of record are required to attend the Judicial Settlement Conference. Attorneys and parties should arrive on time for the conference and remain in attendance until the case settles or the Special Master determines further negotiations will not be productive and adjourns the conference. Attorneys and litigants should not schedule any activity that interferes with the Judicial Settlement Conference. Attorneys participating in the Judicial Settlement Conference must have authority to enter into an agreement resolving all issues on behalf of the client. Failure of any party or attorney to appear for the conference, be on time, be prepared, stay for the duration, and participate in good faith negotiations during the Judicial Settlement Conference may result in the Court imposing sanctions, including a finding of contempt, loss of trial date, and assessment of attorney's fees.
- 2. The Court understands and appreciates that litigants have family and friends that are supportive during this difficult time, however, these individuals are not allowed to participate in the Judicial Settlement Conference. Only attorneys and parties to the proceeding may attend the Judicial Settlement Conference.

C. WHAT TO BRING

- 1. At least 72 hours (three (3) business days) prior to the Judicial Settlement Conference, each party shall deliver an ex parte Judicial Settlement Conference Statement directly to the Special Master. The statement shall be furnished only to the Special Master, not the other party, and shall NOT be filed with the Circuit Court Clerk. The Judicial Settlement Conference Statement shall include a summary of the party's position for settlement, factors compelling or blocking settlement, and a candid assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of the case.
- 2. Attorneys and self-represented litigants should prepare for the Judicial Settlement Conference as you would for trial. All discovery should be completed/supplemented and all necessary documentation and information should be on hand at the conference to support your position. This includes but is not limited to the following documentation:
 - a. Joint asset and liability statement
 - b. Statement showing present value of defined benefit plan (i.e. pension)
 - c. Current appraisal for any real property at issue
 - d. Documentation supporting valuation of assets if applicable

- e. Current statements evidencing debt incurred during the marriage
 - f. Health insurance information
 - g. Current documentation of income including but not limited: to last four (4) pay stubs, last two (2) years of W-2's, last two (2) years of Federal Income Tax returns, and any other applicable income documentation
 - h. Current income and expense statement
 - i. Statement regarding proposed division of assets
 - j. Any expert reports
 - k. Any other evidence you intend to rely on at a trial in this case
- 3. If a digital file is maintained with this information and you do not intend to have paper copies available during the Judicial Settlement Conference, please ensure the user has full access to the digital file and the information is readily available so there is no delay in accessing information during the conference. A flash drive containing this information is useful to avoid connection issues and other problems accessing cloud storage.
- 4. Please come prepared with all Word formatted documents applicable to your case (e.g., Agreed Order, Marital Dissolution Agreement, Final Decree, Parenting Plan, Order to Set, etc.). Attorneys are encouraged to bring a laptop and have the documents readily available for drafting at the Judicial Settlement Conference. Alternatively, copies of the Word formatted documents should be emailed to the Special Master prior to the Judicial Settlement Conference. The Special Master may assist in modifying existing drafts but will not prepare the documents during the conference. Should the parties reach an agreement, having prepared documents on hand expedites drafting a final document for execution and benefits everyone by making the Judicial Settlement Conference more efficient.
- 5. Judicial Settlement Conferences are confidential. Therefore, no part of any statement or information provided to the Special Master or to any party or attorney during a Judicial Settlement Conference shall be used, repeated, or otherwise provided to any other person for any purpose. This protection includes but is not limited to the protection provided by Tennessee Rules of Evidence 408 and 409. Any disclosures made to the Special Master in conjunction with the Judicial Settlement Conference shall likewise be kept confidential and shall not be shared with the judge hearing the case.

6. There is no formal lunch break during the Judicial Settlement Conference. Attorneys and litigants should feel free to have lunch delivered and are encouraged to bring a drink and snack/lunch to eat during the conference. Vending machines are also available and accessible on the ground floor of the courthouse.

D. WHEN TO ARRIVE

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, Judicial Settlement Conferences begin promptly at 9:00 a.m. All parties and attorneys should prepare to be present until 4:30 p.m. and must participate in good faith negotiations to resolve some or all pending matters. Traffic is unpredictable and parking may be difficult downtown. These factors should be given consideration when calculating travel time to the courthouse.

E. WHERE TO GO

All Judicial Settlement Conferences shall take place at the Fourth Circuit Court. The address can be found on page two (2) of this document.

XV. CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS

- A. Contempt matters are not heard on the Friday Motion Docket. They are usually set for hearings on Thursday mornings, unless they will exceed two (2) hours in duration. If a contempt proceeding will exceed two (2) hours, it may be specially set on a trial day. If a motion for contempt is filed and set on a motion docket, the motion may be granted as to the setting of the hearing on a different day and time only.
- B. Appearance orders are required on all contempt petitions (civil or criminal) where, by verified pleadings, the petition is alleging irreparable harm, dire need, or an immediate hearing.
- C. In the case of a civil contempt, an Appearance Order is not appropriate if discovery is necessary to prepare for the hearing. Such matters shall be set by motion when discovery is complete.
- D. DO NOT USE SHOW CAUSE ORDERS ON CONTEMPT PETITIONS AS THE RESPONDENT NEVER HAS THE BURDEN OF PROOF IN CONTEMPT MATTERS AND WILL NOT BE ORDERED TO "SHOW CAUSE."
- E. Contempt proceedings will only be heard if the summons verifying service has been effectuated and filed with the Circuit Court Clerk at least five (5) business days before the hearing.

XVI. JUVENILE COURT APPEALS

- A. It shall be the duty of the parties and/or their attorneys to determine when a case appealed from the Juvenile Court is filed with the Circuit Court Clerk.
- B. Once the case being appealed is received and filed with the Circuit Court Clerk, the appellant has the duty to set the appeal for a hearing before a trial judge. The appellant has 45 days to secure a trial date from the Court. This time is counted from the date the Circuit Court Clerk files the appeal. If the appellant fails to secure this order within the 45-day time period, an order will be entered making the judgment of the Juvenile Court the judgment of the Circuit Court with costs taxed to the appellant. At the time the appeal is perfected in the Circuit Court Clerk's office, the clerk shall give the appellant—or the appellant's attorney—written notice of this rule.
- C. The signature of an attorney or party to an appeal from Juvenile Court shall constitute a certificate under Tenn. R. Civ. P. 11.

XVII. EXHIBITS

- A. When possible, all exhibits, such as text message threads, photographs, emails, and other written communications, shall be printed prior to trial with an additional copy for the Court. The Court will allow text messages, emails, audio-visual videos, voicemails, etc., to be admitted in their original forms if they have not been printed prior to the hearing; however, the Court may either incorporate the exhibit by reference or require the submitting party to provide a hard copy to be marked as a late-filed exhibit within five (5) days of the hearing.
- B. The opposing party shall be afforded an opportunity to view any proposed exhibits and make any objections based on relevance, hearsay, etc., prior to the Court's review of the exhibit.
- C. All exhibits shall be passed to the Court Officer for presentation to a witness, opposing party/counsel, or to the Court.
- D. No exhibit shall be held in any manner or placed in any position in the courtroom that would allow the trier of fact to see the exhibit unless it has been admitted into evidence.
- E. For Order of Protection hearings in courtroom 510, the projector located at the podium shall be used to display written or other visual exhibits, whether as printed documents or those located on mobile or other electronic devices, during the testimony of the witness through whom said exhibits shall be introduced.

XVIII. REMOTE TESTIMONY

All requests for remote testimony of a party or witness will be considered in accordance with Rule 43.01 of the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure.

XIX. CONTINUANCES & EXTENSIONS

- A. Contested cases and judicial settlement conferences will only be continued upon a showing of good cause accompanied by motion and affidavit. Parties may not agree to a continuance without Court permission, but the Court will routinely grant continuances of motions, Show Cause hearings, and most contempt hearings (especially on first settings).
- B. All requests for continuances which are opposed shall be made by written correspondence to the Court's Judicial Assistant, Ronnell Griffin, at ronnellgriffin@jnsnashville.gov. The correspondence shall contain the basis for the request for the continuance and set forth all communication with opposing counsel regarding the request for continuance. If the matter in question was set by agreement, the matter will be continued only for good cause. If the matter requested was set by the Court without input from attorneys for the parties (i.e., a Show Cause Order) or if the matter was set unilaterally by attorneys opposing the continuance (i.e., a motion hearing), the Court will be inclined to liberally grant the continuance.
- C. Absence of a witness will not be a cause for continuance unless the subpoena has been issued and dated 10 days prior to a trial for a local witness and 14 days for an out-of-county witness, pursuant to Local Rule 28.02.
- D. When a case is set by agreement or set upon motion without objection, failure to have completed discovery, inability to take a deposition or failure to have completed any other trial preparation will not be a cause for a continuance.
- E. If a case is continued, it must be continued to a date certain. The reason for the continuance must be contained in the order.
- F. If a continuance is granted, the Court may award expenses and attorney's fees, including compensation to witnesses for lost income and/or travel expenses, and tax the same as court costs.
- G. First time continuance requests are liberally granted.

XX. INTERPRETERS

In the event an interpreter is necessary for any hearing in the Fourth Circuit Court, the use of the State Trial Court interpreter, an interpreter approved by the Administrative Office of the Court (AOC), or an interpreter approved by the AOC guidelines is required. It is incumbent on the party requiring the interpreter to secure the same. An interpreter may be requested using the following link: <https://trialcourts.nashville.gov/interpreter/>. Alternatively, the following QR code may be used:

XXI. ORDERS OF PROTECTION

Order of Protection (OP) cases are heard before Special Master Dana Ballinger in courtroom 510, located on the 5th floor of the Historic Metropolitan Courthouse.

A. OVERVIEW OF ORDERS OF PROTECTION

1. An OP is a civil order; thus, if an OP is issued, that does not mean the Respondent has been charged with or convicted of any criminal offense. An appearance at an OP hearing is a separate matter from any criminal charges—even those stemming from the same incident(s) as those at issue in the OP matter.
2. An OP will be issued for a period of time up to a full year. Each OP granted by the Court will have its own specific expiration date printed in the Order. The OP will automatically expire on that stated expiration date—without the necessity of returning to court unless there has been a hearing to extend the OP.
3. A violation of an Order of Protection is a criminal offense. Violating an OP also constitutes both civil and criminal contempt of court, and each criminal contempt conviction carries up to 10 days in jail.
4. It is unlawful for the Respondent to possess a firearm while an OP is in effect, even if the Respondent is a legal firearms owner. If the Respondent is arrested for violating an OP and they have firearms in their possession, they may be charged criminally with unlawful possession of weapons charges.

5. If the Respondent physically assaults the Petitioner while an OP is in effect, they may be charged with Aggravated Assault, which is a Class C felony.
6. It is not a defense to an OP violation criminal charge if the Petitioner initiated the contact. If the Petitioner contacts the Respondent while the OP is in effect, they must not respond. If the Petitioner continues to attempt to communicate with the Respondent while an OP is in effect, the Respondent may file a Motion to Modify or Dismiss and have it set on a Thursday motion date on the OP Motion Docket for the Court's consideration.
7. The Court has the authority to order temporary support (spousal support for married parties or child support), retribution for vandalism damages, counseling for a Respondent, and other relief when entering an OP.

B. PRELIMINARY MATTERS FOR ORDERS OF PROTECTION

1. Cases are not heard in the order in which they appear on the docket. The Court hears cases in the most judicially efficient manner possible, taking into consideration many factors, including the necessity and availability of foreign language interpreters, anticipated testimony of minor parties or witnesses, schedules of attorneys, length of hearings, etc.
2. Prior to the opening of court, court officers will begin checking in litigants and directing witnesses to an appropriate waiting area. If there are a large number of cases set to be heard on a docket, only parties and their respective attorney will be allowed in the courtroom during the initial docket call.
3. Children are not allowed in the courtroom at any time unless they are witnesses, in which case they are to remain outside of the courtroom until the Court is ready to hear their testimony.
4. Prior to opening Court, court officers will check in litigants for court and ascertain whether there are any pretrial matters or other issues for the court to address or be apprised of before court begins.
5. Attorneys with matters in other courts on the same day as the OP hearing shall notify the Court of their other court obligations during this check-in time.

C. FIREARMS DECLARATION

1. If an Order of Protection is granted against the Respondent, they must file a Firearms Declaration with the Circuit Court Clerk's office within 48 hours of its issuance. This form will be provided to the Respondent in court upon service of the OP. Even if the Respondent does not own or possess firearms, they must file this form. If the Respondent is a firearms owner, they must include the name, address, and telephone contact information of the person to whom they have transported the firearms for safe keeping while the OP is in effect. Once the OP has expired, the Respondent should be able to get any legally owned firearms returned as long as the OP has not been violated.
2. Failure to file the Firearms Declaration within the requisite time will result in a Show Cause Order being issued requiring the Respondent to return to court on a date certain to show cause why they should not be held in contempt of court for failure to file the form. If the Respondent does not appear on the Show Cause Order, a Body Attachment will be issued for their arrest, and they will be incarcerated and held on a $500 cash bond until transported to court to execute the affidavit. The Respondent will be refunded any remaining balance after court costs have been deducted from their bond payment.

D. ORDER OF PROTECTION HEARINGS

1. Initial hearings are set within 15 days of the Respondent being served with the petition and any ex parte OPs (and a notice of service having been returned and filed with the Circuit Court Clerk).
2. At the initial hearing, the Court for good cause may continue the matter to a later date and extend any ex parte order beyond the 15 day period.
3. Any agreement to continue the matter between parties and/or their attorneys must be presented to and approved by the Court prior to or at the initial hearing date. All parties are to be present in court for any continuance requests unless approved by the Court prior to the hearing date.
4. All Orders of Continuance shall include the new hearing date. No Orders of Continuance will be approved or signed without a specific new hearing date included in the Order with a certificate of service to all parties and attorneys.

E. RESTRAINING ORDERS IN LIEU OF AN ORDER OF PROTECTION

1. The Court may not issue a Restraining Order, Mutual Stay Away Order, or any other Order in lieu of an OP in a final hearing; however, the Court may restrain the parties from contact on a temporary basis if a matter is continued even if no ex parte is in effect.

2. The parties may agree to enter a restraining order in lieu of an OP, subject to Court approval, only if a divorce or other domestic case is pending. The restraining order must be presented to the presiding judge in the pending divorce case for approval and entry, and a copy of said Order may be filed as a late-filed exhibit to the Order of Dismissal under the OP docket number.

F. TESTIMONY FOR ORDER OF PROTECTION HEARINGS

1. The Court requires all parties and non-party witnesses to be physically present in court to offer testimony for all hearings. Requests for hearings by Zoom or other audio-visual means by either party will not be granted unless the Court finds extraordinary or compelling reasons for such virtual testimony to be allowed. The requests must be in compliance with rule 43.01 of the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure. Notwithstanding the above, the parties may agree to Zoom or other audio-visual testimony, which is still subject to Court approval.
2. All attorneys must question witnesses from the center podium, using the microphone and projection screen to display documents and other exhibits during a witness's testimony. Parties and witnesses will testify from the designated witness stand and will not be allowed to offer testimony from the counsel table without Court approval for certain reasons, such as mobility issues or advanced age.
3. Each party will have the opportunity to be heard on all relevant and admissible matters. Parties are to refrain from interrupting the other party's testimony (or the testimony of any other witness) except to make a timely evidentiary objection.

G. TESTIMONY OF CHILDREN FOR ORDER OF PROTECTION HEARINGS

1. Minor children who are parties to the litigation are to remain outside the courtroom with a responsible adult until their testimony is presented. The Court may continue the hearing to a new date if unruly children are not supervised or are unable to be secured.
2. Minor children who are not parties to the action are not allowed to be present in the courtroom at any time, unless said minor child is a non-party witness. If a minor is not a party to the case but is to be called as a non-party witness, the minor shall be allowed in the courtroom only during his or her testimony and at no other time.
3. The Court has discretion with regard to hearing a minor's testimony and will utilize its discretion as to whether or not testimony will be allowed on a case by case basis, taking into consideration the nature of the allegations, age of the child, and other factors. The Court will voir dire the minor witness to ascertain that the minor is competent to testify and understands the obligations associated therewith and may ask questions of the minor witness prior to or after direct and/or cross-examination. The Court may hear testimony of minor parties or witnesses in chambers in especially sensitive matters or may clear the courtroom of nonparties during testimony.

1. Witnesses must appear in person to testify in an OP hearing unless other means of testimony have been approved by the court prior to the hearing date.

3. Parties or their respective attorneys should make every effort to subpoena witnesses the Court deems integral to the case, such as unbiased eye witnesses, police officers, DCS investigators, or forensic interviewers in cases involving child abuse allegations, or any party necessary to introduce documents which would otherwise be hearsay.
4. If there are allegations of child abuse or sexual assault of a minor child being investigated by DCS or MNPD (or any other agency), the DCS or MNPD investigator, forensic interviewer, or investigating detective will be considered by the Court to be an integral witness and should be subpoenaed by the party relying on said testimony to appear in court and offer testimony at the hearing. If no subpoenas have been issued and the court deems such testimony necessary in a particular case, the Court may continue the matter and require one or both parties to issue subpoenas for their appearance at the new court date.

I. DISCOVERY FOR ORDER OF PROTECTION CASES

The Court may allow written discovery to be propounded in OP cases upon request; however, due to the emergency nature of OPs, it is generally necessary for the Court to allow limited discovery specifically related to the specific issues raised in the petition to be completed within an abbreviated timeline.

The Court will generate and sign the appropriate Orders—whether an Order of Protection, an Order of Dismissal, or an Order of Continuance—in court immediately following the hearing and provide signed copies to all parties and their attorneys.
